1. The Emigrant Russian Association in Tsingtao has opened a club.
2. The Soviet citizens still have no new club building. The 31 May deadline on the lease of the present club house is drawing near. On 12 May, Lechitsky, Chairman of the Tsingtao Soviet Association, asked the American owner for an extension of one month on the lease but has not yet received an answer. If the extension is granted, the Soviets will spend the additional month in a drive to raise funds for the purchase of a house.
3. Forty-one persons who applied for Soviet passports refused or failed to pick them up from Dorofeev, Tientsin vice-consul, when he was in Tsingtao in December. Not counting these forty-one, the Soviet colony in Tsingtao now numbers 621.
